

Came to Newbury, Mass. in 1635 or 1637. He bought a 'Breeches Bible' in 1612 which has been preserved and is described in N. E. Historical and Gen. Register 1886, p. 203. In this are given dates of birth of his children.

Ref: Old Salisbury p. 54.

Lydia wife of Jonathon Bartlett was dau. of: p. 7

ABRAHAM CHASE

b. about 1694 Newbury, Mass.

m. 1. Nov. 16, 1716 2. Abigail 3. Elizabeth (Davis) Colby

d. Nov. 28, 1770 Plaistow, N. H.

RUTH MORSE p. 11

b. Sept. 25, 1694 Haverhill, Mass.

d. before 1633 11 chil.

Lived in what is now West Newbury near Morse's Lane, 1729. He was one of the inhabitants of Haverhill whose estates fell on the north side of the province line in N. H. in 1741, apparently he then lived in the first Parish of Haverhill. Plaistow, originally, a part of Haverhill was set off as a separate parish Feb. 28, 1749.

Ref: Aquila Chase and his Descendents p. 18.

Abraham was son of:

JOHN CHASE

b. Nov. 2, 1655 Newbury, Mass.

m. 1. May 23, 1677 Elizabeth Bingley 2. Dec. 21, 1687

d. Feb. 26, 1739/40 Newbury, Mass.

LYDIA CHALLIS p. 12

b. May 31, 1665 Salisbury, Mass.

d. living 1730 9 chil.

He was a cooper; a soldier in King Phillip's War under Capt. Wm. Turner and was in "Fall's fight" (at Turner's falls) May 19, 1676 and was one to help bury the brave commander there as he himself testified. Jan. 1701/2 he petitioned for a grant of land for this service. At age 23, 1678, he took the oath of Allegiance in Newbury.

Ref: Old families of Salisbury p. 94.

John was son of:

AQUILA CHASE

b. 1618

d. Dec. 27, 1670 Newbury, Mass.

ANNE WHEELER p. 12

2. Daniel Silloway

d. May 19, 1688

He first appeared in Hampton, N. H. 1640 and in Newbury, Mass. 1646. He was a mariner; coasted between Newburyport and Boston.

Ref: American Families p. 2611; Old families of Salisbury p. 92; Gen. Dictionary of Me. and N. H. p. 138.

Aquila was son of:

RICHARD CHASE

b. Aug. 7, 1586 Chesham, Bucks England

m. June 22, 1606

MARTHA JELLISON

2. CHIL.

Chase- organized castle hunting parties. Norman origin -name formerly being La Chassie. The seat of the English family is Chesham, Buckinghamshire.

REF: N. E. Heads p. XLV.