

Caleb was son of:

JOHN BARKER of Scituate, Mass.

b. Aug. 15, 1714

m. Jan. 18, 1748

GRACE TURNER

2. Susanna Estes

4 chil.

John Barker was a founder, casting cannon for the Mass. Colony during the Indian Wars for which he was expelled from the Society of Friends. He moved to Pownalboro, Me. 1761, with his father.

Ref: Barker Gen. p. 177-178.

John was son of:

CALEB BARKER

b. May 24, 1685 Duxbury or Scituate, Mass.

m. Jan. 18, 1709

d. Aug. 25, 1772 Pownalboro, Me.

ANN CARR dau. of John and Waita Carr.

b. 1689

d. May 11, 1769 Pownalboro, Me. 10 child.

He was a founder and cast bells for meetinghouses; from smaller to even one of two thousand weight. In 1732 he moved to Hanover, Mass; thence in 1763 to Harpswell and Pownalboro, Me. He was selectman of Hanover, Mass. 1734.

Ref: Barker Gen.

Caleb was son of:

ROBERT BARKER

b. Feb. 27, 1650 Marshfield, Mass.

m. 2. Oct. 1705 Mrs. Phebe Marsh

d. Sept. 25, 1729

ALICE 8 chil.

He was a yeoman; was made Lt. Oct. 4, 1675. He later owned a sawmill run by water power in the brook by the family home. In 1684 he owned a farm on Pudding Brook and built a dam there 1693. Constable 1685; surveyor 1687. He also owned land in R. I.

Barker Gen. 166-167.

Robert was son of:

ROBERT BARKER

Will probated Mar. 16, 1691/2

LUCY WILLIAMS dau. of John and Ann Williams

5 chil.

He was a bricklayer and carpenter. Part owner in ferry his brother ran 1641. Bought 100 acres of land in Marshfield, Mass.; was a member of their Military Co. under Lt. Nathaniel Thomas 1643; surveyor in Marshfield 1645-1648 and in Duxbury 1654, 1672, 1677, 1678. Constable of Marshfield 1646; also Grand Jurymen 1669; freeman June 6, 1654; took oath of Fidelity 1659; and was credited with changing of the spelling from 'Barkar' to Barker. He was licensed 1646 to keep an Inn in Marshfield to retail wine, which he canceled 1666. Granted 9½ acres of meadow at Robinson's Creek, North River, Duxbury.

Robert and brother John were early adventurers in Plymouth, Mass. 1628-1630. They went inland and established a trading post at what is now Pembroke, Mass.

Ref: Barker Gen. p. 164-165; Mass. Pioneers p. 32.

Robert was son of:

ROBERT BARKER of Colhurst and Kent England