ISABEL 4 chil listed in will.

He was in Plymouth Colony Mar. 7, 1636/7. Received 10 acres of land on Duxbury side between the lands of Wm. Tubs on North and Experience Mitchell on South; the sea in West and Blew Fish River in East. Peabody--the name is said to have originated in the year 61 during the reign of Nero. Queen Boadicia was located at Icena, Britain. She opposed the Romans in their invasion of the country and with her son Boadie, took refuge in the craggy heights of Wales. Boadie among the Britons signifies a man or great man and Pea signifies a large hill. A mountain from which Boadie came to be called Peabodie or the mountain man and which became the name of the tribe.
